LU Accommodation offers a limited number of rooms and apartments in Lund, Helsingborg and Malmö. If you are coming from a non-EU/EEA country and are paying tuition fees you have a housing guarantee.

RENTAL MARKET

These websites are solely providers of accommodation advertisements and assumes no liability for the actual rental situation, which is an agreement between landlord and tenant. As many advertisements are written in Swedish; if you have any problems understanding the text, send an email or phone the number in the advertisement and it probably will be fine to communicate in English. Be aware of fraudsters in the housing market, we recommend that you refer to Bopoolen's checklist for advice and warning signs.

A good site when looking for sublet housing:
